PARTNERING WITH

Export Post-shipment Cover/Standard Export Cover

BENEFITS

Protects against the failure to receive payment of an insured debt¹ from an insured buyer² in an insured country. Suitable for exporters who have not been paid up-front for goods shipped.

RISKS COVERED

Protracted default: Which is the failure of your buyer to effect payment for an undisputed insured debt within six months after the due date.

Insolvency: Which means any of the following events granted against your insured buyer²:

- A provisional compulsory sequestration order.
- Provisional acceptance by the court of a voluntary surrender of estate.
- A provisional winding-up order.
- Acceptance of a statutory compromise or scheme of arrangement binding on all creditors.
- A provisional judicial management order.

Repudiation: Refusal or failure of your buyer to accept delivery of goods or services without any lawful reason.

Importation: A law in your buyer's country which restricts/controls/prevents the importation of goods into that country.

Transfer: A law in your buyer's country restricting the transfer of funds, beyond your control, back to you.

Conflict: Any occurrence of war, hostilities, civil war, rebellion, insurrection, revolution or other disturbances in an insured country.

FLEXIBLE POLICY STRUCTURES TO SUIT YOUR NEEDS

All markets: You offer all your exports to buyers in all your markets for cover.

Selected markets: You offer all your export buyers in selected countries for cover.

Names of selected buyers: You may wish to cover a specific number of buyers. You must remember the greater your selection, the greater the impact will be on the premium charged.

Insured percentage: The percentage of the insured debt that will be paid by Credit Guarantee in the event of a loss.

Premiums: Premiums are based on turnover, terms of payment and country of destination. Premiums are paid monthly based on a rate schedule, applicable per class of country, or monthly at a fixed value. Annual premiums are also available.

Fees payable: A credit limit fee is payable in respect of each credit limit annexure in force at the end of each month.

Rapid response fee: Depending on the urgency with which you request your credit limit, a sliding-scale fee will be payable. Non-urgent requests attract a minimum charge. These rates can be reduced where credit limit applications are requested through CregaLink (which is a direct link to Credit Guarantee's system). Policy and certain buyer information is also available on CregaLink.
